HKC is memories that last a lifetime.

Every summer, the Henry Kaufmann Campgrounds welcomes 6,500 children and 200 senior adults to its impressive three campgrounds located in Pearl River, Long Island and Staten Island. Through a collaborative partnership with UJA-Federation, JCCs and YM-YWHA's, HKC hosts a diverse non-denominational group of campers reflecting the dynamic nature of the New York metropolitan area. Hundreds of thousands of children have enjoyed the HKC day camp experience—swimming, sports, arts and crafts, nature exploration, and so much more.
